Plans for Brownie, Girl Scout Day Camps Discussed by Leaders

Plans for Intermediate and Brownie Day Camps for Central and East Torrance troops drew the attention of area leaders at the home of Mrs. Ralph Waring last week. Attending the planning session were Mmes. Richard Sullivant, neighborhood chairman of East Torrance; Charles Riggs, neighborhood chairman of Central Torrance; William Wilson, Andrew M. Janasik, Ralph Waring, Clifford Bergan, L. H. Voien, and George Finnell.

Mrs. Andrew M. Janasik, assistant director, will hold day camp for Intermediate Girl Scout Troops at El Nido Park July 11 through July 14. The camping will be "primitive" again this year, the leaders decided, and instruction will be offered in lashing, semaphore flag signaling, tent pitching, use of axe and knife, cooking, hiking, camp craft skills, and overnight camping. Any fifth grader "flown up" by June with a Tenderfoot rank will be eligible for the Intermediate camp.

NO TROOP will be eligible to attend either Intermediate or Brownie day camps this year without an adult present who has taken the training course, the leaders decided. Part of the training will be conducted at El Nido Park. Instructions will include practice cooking over a campfire. Registration fees of $1.35 will be charged, and trainees will share food expenses.

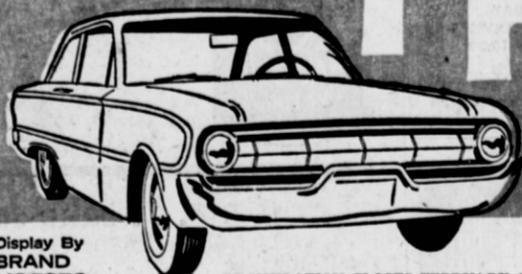

Brownie Day Camp will be held at Torrance Park June 19 through June 23. Mrs. Waring, the director, and Mrs. Bergan, the assistant, will be in charge of the camp. Leadership training classes will be scheduled later. THE BROWNIE day camp will be held from 9:30 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. each day. Last year, 17 units of 12 girls and 2 adults, including a Pixie Camp, held day camp at the park. Program Aids (Senior Scouts) will be trained by Mrs. Voien and Mrs. Sullivant for the Brownie Camp. Any girl scout in the seventh or eighth grade with a First Class rank is eligible to try out for a Program Aid rating.
